war.

[19] Whoever goes about slandering reveals secrets; therefore do not associate with a simple babblers.

[20] If one curses his father or his mother, his lamp will be put out in utter darkness.

[21] An inheritance gained hastily in the beginning will not be blessed in the end.

[22] Do not say, "I will repay evil"; wait for the LORD, and he will deliver you.

[23] Unequal weights are an abomination to the LORD, and false scales are not good.

[24] A man's steps are from the LORD; how then can man understand his way?

[25] It is a snare to say rashly, "It is holy," and to reflect only after making vows.

[26] A wise king winnows the wicked and drives the wheel over them.

[27] The spirit of man is the lamp of the LORD, searching all his innermost parts.

[28] Steadfast love and faithfulness preserve the king, and by steadfast love his throne is upheld.

[29] The glory of young men is their strength, but the splendor of old men is their gray hair.

[30] Blows that wound cleanse away evil; strokes make clean the innermost parts. (ESV)
