

One Page Bible Study: Book of Psalms

Psalm 22 is unique because there is so much prophecy about Christ in its words and many of its scriptures are also recorded in the New Testament.

Psalm 22 should be the critical book to study to understand the Suffering Messiah! David is called a prophet in Acts 2:30

Matthew 27:46- And about the 9th hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice saying, Eli,Eli lema Sabachanthani, My God, My God why have you forsaken me. John 16:32 Behold the hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and will leave me alone, Yet, I am NOT alone, for the Father is with me. (Several other verses with a similar statement) Matthew 27:39-44 And those who passed by derided Him wagging their heads and saying you who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in 3 days save yourself..... Matthew 26:31 Then Jesus said to them, You will all fall away because of me this night? John 19:23-24 When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his garments and	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Psalm 21:-1-2 Should leave no doubts of a few things:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> 1. Connection of this Psalm to the Suffering Christ and prophecy about Christ</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> 2. Even David and Jesus felt at times that God was not near them, but BOTH had strong enough Faith to know that their fears were not accurate.</li> </ul> </li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Some people have said that God had to turn his back on Jesus while he was on the cross, which is why Jesus said these words. Jesus quoted a Psalm that was a prophecy about him that the Jews who were present would know. My best supposition is that he wanted to draw their attention to this Psalm as he was dying.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Psalm 22:3-5 There is a feeling of being forsaken but the writer quickly proclaims his trust and faith in God. WHY?             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> God is Holy/can be trusted</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> God delivered in the past(Moses/Judges)</li> </ul> </li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Psalm 22:6-11             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> They are mocking Him, daring him to save himself in these verses. We see this with Christ on the cross as well.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Imagery of trusting in a mother who provides from the very beginning of life!(This is the trust he has in God)</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> V11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near, and there is none to help! Who can Jesus turn to?</li> </ul> </li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Psalm 22:12-18 These verses contain another gruesome account of the suffering of Christ. The imagery God uses in these verses paints a vivid picture that God understood. With Jesus being God, did he understand all the way back to David what he would be doing?</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Imagery to Reality- Jesus actually suffered these</li> </ul>
