Connecting Scriptures/Thoughts	Psalm 131- I Have Calmed and Quieted My Soul- David
Matthew 18:1-3 3 years they were with Jesus and this is the question they ask. John 13:12-17 Psalm 138:6 How does God feel about the PROUD? Proverbs 3:34 James 4:6 David reveals here how we can start living deeper and more meaningful lives. It is not something that happens by accident; rather it is a choice we make. "We are not merely instinctual animals. We are conscious of ourselves. This allows us to calm and quiet ourselves before God, and this is exactly what David does" (Williams p. 444). Even though David was probably surrounded by noise, hurry, crowds and responsibilities he still had learned to calm his soul. He found himself distracted by God rather than by the white-noised that surrounded him.	[1] O LORD, my heart is not lifted up; my eyes are not raised too high; I do not occupy myself with things too great and too marvelous for me. [2] But I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child is my soul within me. [3] O Israel, hope in the LORD from this time forth and forevermore. V 10-12 There is a promise given to David by God. For the sake of David. We learned that from the previous Psalm, David had a humble heart, he did not let How God felt about him go to his head.

Acts 2:30 A descendant that God will not remove because He never sinned.

Heb 12:22-24; 28-29

[3] "I will not enter my house or get into my bed,
 [4] I will not give sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids,
 [5] until I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob."
 [6] Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah; we found it in the fields of Jaar.
 [7] "Let us go to his dwelling place; let us worship at his footstool!"
 [8] Arise, O LORD, and go to your resting place, you and the ark of your might.
 [9] Let your priests be clothed with righteousness, and let your saints shout for joy.
 [10] For the sake of your servant David, do not turn away the face of your anointed one.
 [11] The LORD swore to David a sure oath from which he will not turn back: "One of the sons of your body I will set on your throne.
 [12] If your sons keep my covenant and my testimonies that I shall teach them, their sons also forever shall sit on your throne
 [13] For the LORD has chosen Zion; he has desired it for his dwelling place:
 [14] "This is my resting place forever; here I will dwell, for I have desired it.
 [15] I will abundantly bless her provisions; I will satisfy her poor with bread.
 [16] Her priests I will clothe with salvation, and her saints will shout for joy.
 [17] There I will make a horn to sprout for David; I have prepared a lamp for my anointed.
 [18] His enemies I will clothe with shame, but on him his crown will shine." (ESV)
